

EMPLOYER SUPPORTED

TRAINING

2014

Share of private sector firms which provided training rose to record high of 8 in 10

More small firms provided training, closing gap with large firms

Top motivating factors to send staff for training

| Among Firms:                                       | With Training | Without Training |
|--|---------------|------------------|
| Increased govt training subsidies                  | 67 %          | 52 %             |
| Manage workload when staff go for training         | 65 %          | 55 %             |
| More industry-specific training courses            | 57 %          | 35 %             |
| Govt subsidies for more industry-specific training | 55 %          | 40 %             |

Proportion of firms that experienced positive impact from training

Employees' Skills Level

Work Efficiency

Quality Of Services

Job Responsibilities

Ability To Meet Changing/ Future Needs