Notes:

1. Data pertain to private sector establishments (i.e. job vacancies in Public Administration and Education do not include those from government ministries and statutory boards).
2. Entry-level PMET jobs are those with a salary range of $2,300 to $5,000 (which are typical starting salaries for tertiary educated entrants).
3. Data on job vacancies is obtained from surveys conducted by Manpower Research and Statistics Department (MOM), job advertisement sites and MyCareersFuture. The number of vacancies for each top entry-level job is the number of job advertisements posted (rounded to nearest 10). Data is as at June 2025.
4. * represents industries which are typically higher-paying and of higher productivity.
